Bloomington— The City of Bloomington will host its 11th Home Improvement Fair on Saturday, February 22, 9:30 a.m. – 2:30 p.m., at Bloomington Civic Plaza, 1800 West Old Shakopee Road.

If you're considering making home improvements, don't miss this free event that features more than 60 vendors. Fairgoers will be able to visit a variety of home improvement exhibits, have questions answered by professionals in the home improvement field and get ideas for remodeling projects.

The Home Improvement Fair is a great opportunity to learn more about planning your next remodeling project, see what new products are available for your home and visit the special "Art in the Home" show in the Inez Greenberg Gallery. Home Depot will host kids' activities and Dakota Wild Animals will present an interesting selection of reptiles and mammals.

In 2012, 1,500 people attended the Home Improvement Fair; 2014 is expected to attract more. Stop by the HRA booth and find out about no-payment home improvement loans.
