

April 23, 2024

By publicly posting the following written disclosure, the City of Bloomington, MN intends that market participants receive and use it for purposes of the independent registered municipal advisor exemption to the SEC Municipal Advisor Final Rules until December 31, 2027.

The City of Bloomington has retained Baker Tilly Municipal Advisors. Bloomington is represented by and will rely on its municipal advisors, to provide advice on proposals from financial services firms concerning the issuance of municipal securities and municipal financial products. The individual with primary responsibility for advising Bloomington on such matters is:

Elizabeth Bergman, Principal
Baker Tilly Municipal Advisors